

PART II THE GAZETTE OF PAKISTAN, EXTRA., MARCH 15, 1993 819

11. Acidity (where relevant).
12. Alkalinity (where relevant).
13. Other properties may in certain cases need evaluation.
14. Wettability (for dispersible powders).
15. Persistent foam (for formulation applied in water).
16. Suspensibility (for dispersible powders and suspending concentrates).
17. Wet sieve test (for dispersible powders & suspension concentration).
18. Dry sieve test (for granules and dusts).
19. Emulsion stability (for emulsifiable concentrates).
20. Corrosiveness (when necessary).
21. Known incompatibilities with other products, e.g. pesticides, fertilizers.

XII. EFFICACY :

1. Primary evaluation data using, harmonized method and reported in a systematically presented complete dossier.

XIII. TOXICOLOGY DATA :

1. Acute oral toxicity.
2. Acute percutaneous toxicity
Acute inhalation.
3. Acute inhalation.
4. Skin irritation.
5. Eye irritation.
6. Direct observations, e.g. clinical cases.
7. Health records, both from industry and Agriculture.
8. Treatment of poisoning.
9. First-Aid measures.
10. Supplementary treatment.